PUBLISHERS' ANNOUNCEMENT.

THE BUFFALO ADDRESS BOOK AND FAMILY DIRECTORY has become an established fact.

It has met the requirements of business houses, professional men and women, schools, social clubs and families, who, after thoroughly testing its usefulness, give THE ADDRESS BOOK the strongest endorsement.

To insure accuracy, experienced canvassers have been employed, and every suggestion offered from various sources has been considered, and, where found feasible, adopted, to make this edition superior to any of its predecessors.

If there be any—as there must be—whose names do not appear, the omission must be attributed to the difficulties of the undertaking, not to deliberate exclusion.

In several cases where the canvassers were refused at the door, the names have either been omitted, or as full information as possible gained at second hand.

In conclusion, the publishers would state, the object of THE ADDRESS BOOK is not to draw arbitrary social boundary lines; but to give, in compact form, the names of householders with their residences and exact numbers for the convenience of patrons and the public generally, to whom they trust it may—with the increased amount of information it contains, prove an invaluable compendium of local information.

PREFACE.

THE BUFFALO ADDRESS BOOK AND FAMILY DIRECTORY was first published four years ago, in order to supply the need of a "Blue Book," or better, a Family Directory, which had been felt from the time our smaller community was merged into a flourishing and rapidly growing city of over two hundred thousand inhabitants.

The price of THE ADDRESS BOOK has not been raised, although it enters upon a third and revised edition, containing more information than previous editions.

THE ADDRESS BOOK is of a very convenient size, and in its new and attractive dress, prettier than former issues, it is suitable alike for the library-table and the counting room.

Business firms, teachers, ministers, schools, charity organizations, clubs and hostesses, have found it indispensable.

Much of the information which it contains, as it relates to clubs, to societies, to public schools, and to the personnel of the press, is official, and does not appear elsewhere in so handy a form.

The rapid growth of our city, both in new residences and population, has enabled us to add new streets and a large number of names that had not appeared in the last issue, making it the most complete and accessible list of its kind published.

The Publishers are pleased to be able to say, that frequent testimonials of appreciation have been sent them, by persons using the previous issues of THE ADDRESS BOOK who have said in addition, that many times the cost of the book, would not get them to part with the copy they possessed, were not a duplicate to be found at our store.

A new feature is a list of prominent Residents having Telephone connections in the city, which will be found very useful.

HANDY HINTS ON ETIQUETTE.

[A few general rules are here given, in the belief that they will prove of service in doubtful moments, by solving some of the minor problems of formal intercourse. Their brevity will at once commend them to the reader.]

CARD ETIQUETTE.

A medium-sized card, the engraving in simple script, and without flourishes, is now preferred. Do not deluge a family with cards. When admitted—no matter how many ladies there are in the family—only one card is given to the servant, and this card is not turned down. Not more than three cards should be left at the same time on the members of the family. The fashion of turning down the corners of the card has become almost obsolete, except perhaps where a woman wishes it distinctly understood that she has called in person, when she turns down the upper right hand corner, or when she turns down the entire left end to denote a call on all the ladies of the family. The latter form is the one most often used by Buffalo women.

On men's visiting cards Mr. may or may not be prefixed to the name.

It is rare now to see the names of both husband and wife engraved on one card. The wife has her individual card, her husband his, each of the sons and daughters his and her own.

The husband's card should accompany his wife's on all formal occasions.

The mother's and the eldest daughter's names are engraved on the same card during the first season and afterwards (if agreeable) in this form :—

MRS. CHARLES FRANCIS ALLEN.

MISS ALLEN

200 Franklin Street

or if there be more than one daughter in society, Misses Allen is proper.

The fashionable hours for paying visits in Buffalo are from 2 to 5 P. M.

When a lady is known to have set apart a certain day in the week to receive visitors, make your visits on that day if possible.

Women living in the same neighborhood should have the same reception day.

In Buffalo, society women make a round of visits once during the season, usually just before Lent. Party calls are, however, made within a week after the affair, and upon guests in town within a week of their arrival. Congratulatory visits in person are due to the parents who have invited you to the wedding of their daughter as well as upon the bride.

Acceptances or regrets should be sent as soon as possible after receiving an invitation. If no regret be sent to a ball or party, it is understood that the invitation is accepted.

An invitation to a dinner, to a formal luncheon, or to a breakfast party should be answered on the day received. Always give a reason for declining.

On reception of a Four o'clock tea card, no answer is required. If unable to attend, enclose your visiting card in a small envelope, and send at the hour of the party.

At an "At Home," or "Four o'clock tea," upon entering leave your visiting card in the card receptacle in the hall. A "Four o'clock tea" demands no after call. It is in itself a call. An "At Home" where the hours are extended into the evening, and the affair in all its accessories wears the aspect of a formal reception, demands an after-call.

The eldest daughter is always Miss Allen upon her cards, the second, Miss Ida Laura Allen.

Men, as well as women are expected to make their party visits within a month after the entertainment. Etiquette demands that they be made within a week, but where young men are engrossed in business, a little delay is excusable. In case of failure to call, the hostess is at liberty to efface the offender's name from her list. If he cannot call, a card by post, or delivered in person by a kinswoman with her own card is imperative.

ENTERTAINMENTS.

BREAKFASTS.

Any hour from half-past nine to eleven o'clock is a suitable time for giving a formal breakfast.

The invitations may be written or verbal, and need not be given out more than twenty-four hours in advance, or, to the most extent five days.

The style of the invitation, if written, should be in the form of a friendly note, or a lady may use her visiting card, with:—

Breakfast at half-past nine o'clock, January 29th.

The breakfast should not be elaborate, either as to the menu or the dresses of the women present.

The food is served from the side-board, or upon the table in courses, which, however, should be few in number, and the coffee, chocolate or tea service is placed in front of the hostess.

Pretty street dresses for the ladies, and morning or frock coats for gentlemen with light-colored trousers, is the proper attire for a breakfast. An after-call is expected after a formal breakfast.

LUNCHEONS.

Luncheons are more frequently given than breakfasts in Buffalo, but in either case the forms are nearly the same. A ladies' lunch-party may be made nearly as elaborate as a dinner party, or may consist of two or three simple courses deftly served.

The hours for a luncheon-party are from one to two o'clock. The ladies wear demi-toilettes, black velvet or dark silk walking dresses, or a tailor-finished suit, and a bonnet or not according to the taste of the hostess or the formality of the invitation. Quantities of flowers are used at an elaborate luncheon, but good taste discourages expensive menu cards and a great variety of wines.

FOUR O'CLOCK TEA.

Invitations to a Four o'clock tea are issued from twenty-four hours to a week in advance.

The hostess uses her visiting card for this purpose, with:—

Tea at four o'clock.

in the lower left-hand corner or she may use fancy illuminated cards, with a steaming tea-pot in the upper corner, or some other cabalistic device.

The real Four o'clock tea is the simplest of all entertainments possible. A bevy of young ladies, or two or three pretty matrons, are asked to take turns in presiding over the tea-table which should contain no greater variety than tea, coffee and chocolate, with biscuits, sandwiches, and fancy cakes, though some bountiful hostesses add to these, ices, and salads.

Women go to Four o'clock teas in their handsomest walking dresses, and remain from half an hour to an hour. Men, if invited go in morning dress.

RECEPTIONS AND AT HOMES.

The following is the usual card for a reception:—

MR. AND MRS. LAURENCE STODART request the pleasure of your presence
Monday evening, January seventh, from eight until eleven o'clock.

or for an "At Home"—

MR. AND MRS. LAURENCE STODDART.

At Home,

Tuesday, January 8th and 15th.

900 Delaware Avenue,

The "At Home," however, is seldom engraved upon a reception card, except it be for a series of receptions after a wedding.

Less formal receptions or "At Homes," may be signified by writing the formula below the name upon the visiting cards.

Women in Buffalo often combine the afternoon and evening reception, by having the hours from five to nine, or five to ten. At ceremonious evening receptions, men appear in full dress, and women in rich brocades, velvets and satins, with dress bouquets.

The supper may be as elaborate as the hostess chooses to make it, and there should always be an orchestra.

PARTIES AND BALLS.

The evening party almost invariably includes dancing, yet the word dancing is usually engraved on the corner of the invitation, with the hour at which it is to begin.

Dancing and an elaborate supper constitute a ball.

Invitations are sent out from ten days to two weeks in advance.

It is scarcely necessary to state that a dancing assembly demands full dress on the part of both ladies and gentlemen.

The following is the formula —

MRS. LAURENCE STODDART

requests the pleasure of your presence

Wednesday evening, December first,

at half-past nine

Dancing

905 Franklin Street.

As no houses in Buffalo are built with ball-rooms, the drawing-room, contiguous halls, etc., are used instead, with a linen cloth stretched over the carpets, and the furniture mostly removed.

An unlimited quantity of flowers are used, and light drinks, such as punches, lemonade, and beverages are dispensed throughout the evening.

Supper is served between eleven and twelve o'clock.

DINNER GIVING.

Invitations to a dinner are always given in the name of both host and hostess. If it be an engraved card or note, the name of host and hostess occupies one line, and the request follows, in smaller script, with the name of the invited person written across in a blank space arranged by the engraver. Below this are the date and hour of the dinner, thus :—

MR. AND MRS. HARVEY HALDWIN request the pleasure of presence at dinner,

Tuesday, January 10th,

at seven o'clock

No. 99 North Street.

And if the dinner be given in honor of a particular individual, his name may follow the date on the line below, introduced of course by the words, to meet.

The following form is used in reply, which should be sent immediately :—

MR. AND MRS. HANDEY RODGERS.

accept with pleasure

MR. AND MRS. HARVEY HALDWIN'S

kind invitation to dine with them

Tuesday, the 10th inst.,

at seven o'clock.

If unable to accept, send a refusal expressive of disappointment, thus :—

MR. AND MRS. HARRIS HADGEMAN regret that a previous engagement [or illness or an unfortunate event,] prevents the acceptance of
 MR. AND MRS. HARVEY BALDWIN'S.
very kind invitation for Tuesday evening, January 10th.

Of course intimate friends may write each other more informal regrets and acceptances.

To be prompt at a dinner-party is rigidly required.

Ladies and gentlemen are expected to be in full dress at a dinner-party.

The ceremony of taking people in to dinner is this . —

The host goes first, with the lady for whom the dinner is given the hostess last with the principal gentleman, all remaining standing by their chairs until the hostess is seated.

To attempt to enter into an exhaustive description of the various bills of fare, or the accessories of a dinner, would fill a good-sized volume, for it is the most elaborate and sumptuous of entertainments, and the hostess, who is not sure of her own composure, and of her servants, should not attempt to give dinner-parties.

WEDDINGS.

Wedding-cards, engraved in plain script upon one sheet of paper are sent out at least ten days before the ceremony, and often two weeks in advance. Invitations to remote places are forwarded sooner.

The bride-to-be should leave her last visiting-card at the doors of her friends' houses at the time, or just before her wedding invitations are distributed, she does not enter except it be to visit an invalid or an aged lady. Although in many cases neglected, the call before marriage is one strictly demanded by etiquette.

The most elegant wedding invitations ever issued in Buffalo have been in the following form:—

MR. AND MRS. GARDNER F. DWYER request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter
 KATE ALICE to CHARLES BRONSON, at Trinity Church, Tuesday, May twenty-second, at six o'clock. Also to attend a reception at their residence, from half-past six until half-past seven o'clock.

The latter part of the formula might be omitted in case of a very large church wedding and small after-ceremony reception and the reception-card be enclosed with the invitation to the wedding, for the benefit of the hundred or more invited to the house.

A less elegant but more generally popular form of invitation is the following:—

MR AND MRS. GARDNER F. DWYER
request your presence
at the marriage of their daughter
 KATE ALICE and
 CHARLES BRONSON
Tuesday evening, May second, 1885,
at six o'clock,
Trinity Church,
Buffalo.

In this case also the card for the reception would be enclosed, as follows:—

Reception
from half past five until half-past seven,
174 Delaware Avenue.

There are several ways of varying the formula of invitation to the church, but lack of space prevents us from entering more into detail. The safest course, however, in issuing invitations of any kind, is to consult with a first-class engraver, whose business it is, to keep himself formed of all the newest usages.

It has become a necessity to enclose a small admission-card with the invitations to a church wedding. It should bear the following formula —

Please present this at the Church.

Rehearsals should always precede church weddings, which are now usually conducted in the English form as follows —

Just previous to the ceremony, the bridegroom, accompanied by his best man, enters the chancel, from the vestry-room. The officiating clergyman being already in his place and the two take their positions at the altar. The ushers, dressed in frock coats, gray trousers, and dark scarfs, if it be a morning wedding, or in full dress, if it be in the evening—the same rule applying to the bridegroom and best man—form a procession at the left door of the church to lead up the bridal party. The ushers in pairs are followed by the bridesmaids in pairs. Then comes the mother of the bride with her eldest son, or some other kinsman, and last the bride on her father's arm. In the chancel the groom comes forward, and taking the bride from her father, leads her to the altar rail, where both kneel for a moment's silent devotion, the members of the bridal party forming a graceful group around them.

This order may be altered and diversified to suit the taste of the chief actors, and it is a very pretty fashion, where the chancel is spacious, for the nearest kinsfolk to form part of the bridal procession and chancel tableau.

It is seldom that the veil is now raised in church.

The bridesmaids usually wear bonnets, but they should not wear veils, for this article is a badge of distinction which belongs to the bride alone.

The ceremony over, the newly married pair and their attendants march down the right aisle out of the church.

At the reception, the bride's mother yields her place as hostess for the nonce, and is always addressed after the bride.

If the wedding gifts are on exhibition good taste absolutely demands that the cards of the givers be suppressed.

It is the duty of the ushers to take the guests up to be presented, introducing each by name.

Weddings at home vary but little from those in church. An altar of flowers and a place for kneeling can be easily arranged at home. The space behind the altar need be no wider than is required for the clergyman to stand.

When the marriage-ceremony is concluded, the party turn in their places, and face their friends who wait to congratulate them. The floral altar is usually pushed back against the wall after the ceremony.

Calls by a. the guests upon the family of the bride, is a rigorous formality, within ten days after the wedding.

IN PARTICULAR.

In inviting people to a large party, it is safe to invite twice as many as you expect, such is the percentage of those kept away by illness or accident.

In inviting to a reception at a small house, the avoidance of a crowd being an object, allow for the absence of one-third, that is if you want fifty invite seventy-five, and so on.

The rule is to eat nothing with a spoon that can be eaten with a fork.

Do not introduce residents to each other unless sure that it is mutually desired.

Never say ma'am. Children should be taught to say yes, papa, no, mamma, with the accent on the second syllable of mamma and papa, and yes, Mrs. Blank, no, Mr. Blank, instead of yes, sir, no ma'am, etc.

Do not call these pants or pantaloons but trousers.

Call it a waistcoat, not a vest.

Do not say rubbers, say overboots.

Say ill, or indisposed, not sick, unless you mean nauseated.

Do not speak of your servants as girls, but of the cook as the cook the nurse as the nurse, and the housemaid as the maid.

Every invitation can now be sent by post in Buffalo except an invitation to a formal dinner, which should be delivered by private hand, and an answer returned immediately in the same formal manner.

Formerly it was the custom for a wife to take her husband's arm on entering a room; but that is now old-fashioned. The lady enters first, the gentleman following.

In ascending a staircase, the gentleman should go up first, and not with, or after, the lady.

A man should never wear a dress-coat by daylight. He may, however, don it for a half-past six dinner, after which it will be the appropriate dress for a ceremonious evening call, and for all formal social gatherings. It is not, however, properly worn at the meetings of a literary club or at a parlor lecture unless the ladies also appear in dressy attire.

To write an elegant note is now deemed a high accomplishment. There are certain vulgarisms to be avoided. Do not use fancy paper, but heavy unruled creamy white. Monograms and crests are very much in favor, ladies prefer to have the address of their city residence printed at the head. The present taste is to seal the note with colored wax, and stamp it with the initials or crest. The ink should be black, always.

An execrable vulgarity is for a married woman to prefix the Mrs. to her signature.

In writing a business letter, or writing to a stranger who will not know whether to address you in return as Mrs. or Miss, give the address in full. after the signature as:—

Very truly yours,

Mary K. Holmworthy.

Address

Mrs. John Holmworthy,

1000 Main Street,

Buffalo, N. Y.

If the writer be unmarried, she may simplify this by placing the Miss in brackets at the left of her signature as follows:—

Very truly yours,

[Miss]

E. A. Holmworthy.

In this case she places the other part of the address, i. e. city, state, street and number at the head of her letter.
